

Terry Ryan

Terry Ryan serves as a Director of the Constellis Corporation and supports US government national security assessments and studies. Terry was most recently the CEO of Tenax Aerospace where he successfully transitioned the company to the NTC Group and still advises the company on defense-related aviation matters. He was also the CEO of VT Group from 2013 to 2015 and before that, he held the position of Chairman and President of Mercury Federal Systems. Terry also held senior executive positions at ManTech, SAIC, and SRA International. During his tenure, he worked on the Intelligence Community's Transformation Advisory Group, and the Constellation Architecture Panel. Prior to that, Terry served as President, CEO, and Director of Adroit Systems, Inc., where he advised DARPA on the development of autonomous ground and air vehicles.

Terry has more than 20 years of experience with the U.S. Government. He held pivotal senior executive positions as the OSD Director for Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance Systems; and as the Deputy Director of the Defense Airborne Reconnaissance Office. He also served as a Professional Staff Member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence and House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. Terry's 10-year military term included a position as senior intelligence analyst for the U.S. Office of Naval Intelligence, and infantry commander and intelligence officer for the U.S. Marine Corps.
